Annual Disability Studies Series
Wednesday, April 6th at 1:00pm via Zoom

In Conversation with Judy Heumann:
Experiences of an Unrepentant Disability Rights Activist

Judy Heumann, the "Mother of Disability Rights," is a pioneer in the development and implementation of equity legislation including Section 504, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act and the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities. She is a featured subject in the Oscar-nominated documentary Crip Camp: A Disability Revolution and author of her 2020 memoir Being Heumann.

Dr. April Coughlin of the Department of Teaching and Learning will interview Judy about the past, present, and future of Disability Rights and accessibility.

ASL and CART live transcription will be available during the event.

If you have accessibility questions or require accommodations to fully participate in this event, please contact the Disability Resource Center by March 31 at drc@newpaltz.edu
