SEX SIGNALS

NEW SCRIPT!

“I know from our participant evaluations that our students are overwhelmingly impacted in a positive manner. We have continued to bring this show back time and again because our students have demanded that we do so!”

Jodi K. Caldwell, Director, Counseling Center & Chair, Sexual Assault Response Team, Georgia Southern University

SEX SIGNALS

Sex Signals has become one of the most popular sexual assault prevention programs on college campuses through its unorthodox, humor-facilitated and inclusive approach. Our most recent updates have made our program even more culturally relevant and inclusive.

The impact of interaction

A two-person team of highly-trained educators takes the audience on an interactive, relevant, and often hilarious exploration of the cultural messaging we receive about gender, sexuality, sexual health, and intimate relationships. It examines what roles culture and privilege play in justifying unhealthy and dangerous beliefs about what is acceptable social and sexual behavior. This is all accomplished through facilitated dialogue and several semi-improvisational scenes that lead to a focused discussion on the role we all can play in ending sexual violence. Audiences will be able to positively change the way they think, communicate and act by encouraging bystander intervention in all aspects of their life.

The takeaway

1

Engage audiences in a focused discussion on social pressures, gender stereotypes, unrealistic sexual expectations, and the role of alcohol surrounding hooking up and intimate relationships

2

Establish how these beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors can lead to sexual violence

3

Delineate the difference between seduction and coercion; define the nature of sexual violence

4

Empower the audience to identify predatory behavior in others and intervene to support vulnerable members in their communities

“You guys made such a triggering and touchy subject out as incredibly approachable. It really meant a lot, and the character of your staff is incredible.

-Rachael, Student, University of North Carolina (Asheville)
